Philadelphia, June 1 (AP)—Leaders in all walks of life today joined the Roman Catholic church in mourning the death of Dennis Cardinal Dougherty, archbishop of Philadelphia.

The dean of American Catholic hierarchy and the fifth American elevated to the Sacred Curia suffered a cerebral hemorrhage yesterday, the 61st anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. He was 85.

Following the cardinal's death the Most Rev. Hugh L. Lamb, named ten days ago as bishop of the new diocese of Greensburg, Pa., was appointed administrator of the ten-county eastern Pennsylvania archdiocese.

2-Day Honor Guard
The cardinal will lie in state Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday at the cathedral of St. Peter and Paul with an honor guard from the archdiocesan Holy Name society in constant attendance.

A solemn pontifical mass of requiem will be celebrated at the cathedral Thursday morning by the Most Rev. J. Carroll McCormick, auxiliary bishop of the archdiocese and the cardinal's nephew. The sermon will be preached by Bishop Lamb.

Burial will be in a crypt under the high altar of the cathedral within whose premises the prelate's crowning work was accomplished.

Dennis Joseph Dougherty was one of nine children born to Irish immigrant parents at Ashland, Pa.

In 1921 he was elevated to the cardinalate becoming the first cardinal archbishop of Philadelphia and achieving world-wide reputation as "The Great Builder." At the time of his death more than 2,000,000 Catholics lived in the archdiocese and its churches totaled nearly 400.

Washington, June 1 (AP)—Secretary of State Acheson took the witness chair today in the Senate's MacArthur inquiry. Washington, June 1 (AP)—The Reconstruction Finance corporation ordered another three-cent cut in its price for tin today in a new effort to drive down the world price.

The cut, the fourth in a row, was from $1.39 to $1.36 a pound. The RFC price is the one at which it sells the metal to American producers.

Washington, June 1 (AP)—Senate passage of a compromise draft and universal military training bill appeared likely today.

Sensor Case (R-S.D.), who won a one-day delay in voting yesterday, told a reporter he expected passage today. Case had objected to a vote until senators received printed copies of the bill.

Washington, June 1 (AP)—A four-year-old proposed Senate committee report accusing the RFC and the B & O railroad with "collusive and irregular dealings" was made public today.

The dealings involved an $80,000, 000 loan made by the government Reconstruction Finance corporation to the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. The document said the RFC's arrangements with the B & O concerning the loan violated the RFC act.

FAMILY KILLED BY COAL FUMES

Shamokin, Pa., June 1 (AP)—Poisonous fumes from a furnace killed a garment plant executive, his wife and their young son, police said today.

The bodies of the victims, clad in pajamas, were discovered in the boy's bedroom last night. They had been dead about 48 hours.

Police Chief Myron F. Reese identified the victims as Samuel Randall, 54, supervising manager of the Olan Dress company plant here; Randall's wife, Anne, 42; and their son, Ronald, nine.

The carbon monoxide fumes struck down the family shortly after they had prepared for bed Tuesday night, Reese said. The police officer said the fumes came from a coal furnace in the cellar.

Comic books and toys were on the floor near the boy's body, Reese said. The fumes even killed two Randall pets—a canary and hamster.

Shopping Armies Storm Big Stores

New York, June 1 (AP)—Shopping armies are marching merrily on Macy's and Gimbel's, enjoying a price war which threatens to engulf all city retailers.

Armed with dollars, which they brandish like flaming green swords, women have been storming the counters of the two big stores snapping up former price-controlled items at lower and lower mark-downs. In this battle of the bargains, mere man doesn't have a chance.

The price-cutting tussle grew out of a U.S. Supreme court decision 11 days ago ruling that stores which do not sign fair-trade agreements need not observe retail prices set by manufacturers.

Macy's started the price-cut pounce on Tuesday, following an announcement on Monday. A block away at Gimbel's, management said nobody would undersell them. With an enforced truce during the Memorial Day closing, the buying wave yesterday battered huge holes in merchandise prices.

LOCAL NINE TO PLAY BARLOW AWAY SUNDAY

Sunday's schedule of games in local baseball leagues will again present some important contests.

Rogers Herr's Gettysburg team of the South Penn circuit will go after its third straight victory when it tangles with Barlow at Barlow, "Skip" Pisco or Charley Woodward seems likely to draw the local pitching assignment.

Hunterstown's unbeaten league leaders play at Granite. The second-place Brushtown team plays at Green Springs while Greenmount is host to Bonneauville.

Unbeaten Bendersville will be host to Heidersburg in the Penn-Adams league. Mummaburg plays at Wensville in the other league game.

An over-flow crowd is expected to attend the Pen-Mar game at Fairfield where Cashtown will be the visiting team. Both teams are arch rivals and Fairfield is currently tied with Taneytown for first place.

Other games in the loop include McSherrystown at Littlestown, Emmitsburg at Thurmont and Taneytown at Westminster.

BULLETS MEET DICKINSON 9 IN TWO GAMES

Gettysburg college's baseball team needs a pair of victories over Dickinson on Saturday to wind up its season with a better than .500 average.

Interstate League

The Hagerstown Braves look down on their rivals in the Interstate league today from the vantage point of a five-game command.

Continuing their winning way last night, they swamped the Harrisburg Senators 12 to 1. It was the Braves' 14th victory in their last 15 starts.

The lone defeat in this impressive skein was dealt by the York White Roses in the nightcap of a Memorial Day twin bill.

Last night's top heavy win was smooth going through for veteran pitcher Andy Bush, who allowed only six hits, thereby earning his seventh straight triumph.

Harrisburg took a one run lead in the top of the second inning. The Braves tied the count in their half, then went on an eight-run rampage in the third. A triple by Pete Perini that scored two runners and a homer by Dodo Cantera with two on bases highlighted the slugger.

The second place Lancaster Red Roses were humbled, 9 to 6, by the tallied Salisbury Athletics, who rallied after two men had been retired in the seventh inning and scored four runs. Harry Lashtuka was credited with the victory, but reliever Bob Zick shared the honors by quelling an eighth inning uprising.

The Wilmington Blue Rocks defeated the Allentown Cardinals 4 to 2 behind the eight-hit pitching of Dick England.

York nudged out the Sunbury Giants 5 to 4. John Krall was thumped for 14 hits but sharp work afield saved the day for him.

000. If he fails to pay the fine, two years will be added to his sentence. He was dismissed from the military service.

The verdict is subject to the usual military review.

LEAGUE RACES ARE RUNNING TRUE TO FORM FOR SOME CLUBS

By JACK HAND
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Let's run down the majors at the first quarter pole to see how the pre-season dope stands up.

National League
Brooklyn—At best.
St. Louis—Eye opener.
Chicago—Morning glory?
Boston—Heavy load.
New York—Left at post, moving up.

Cincinnati—In-and-out.
Philadelphia—Inkstand (Y).
Pittsburgh—Recent form dull.

American League
Chicago—May steal it all.
New York—Likes stadium track.
Boston—Fierce at Fenway.
Cleveland—Can do better.
Detroit—Good pitch—no hit.
Washington—Early foot.
Philadelphia—New boy, same trouble.
St. Louis—In over head.

The dope is running true to form for Brooklyn which admittedly was the class of the league in everything but pitching.

Trouble flared in Brooklyn last night as pitcher Russ Meyer of the Phils bumped Jackie Robinson in a home plate mix-up in the eighth inning of the Dodgers' 4-3 win over the 1950 champs.

Almost A Fight
Robinson, caught in a rundown after Carl Furillo missed a squeeze bunt, scored when Meyer dropped the ball. Russ tried to block the plate from Robinson but Jackie got past him. Meyer then bumped the negro star with his chest. Only quick action by his teammates prevented blows.

Taken from the game by manager Eddie Sawyer, Meyer challenged Robinson to meet him under the stands. Jackie accepted the challenge but was stopped by Roy Campanella and other Brooks. Umpire Larry Goetz also was a peace maker.

After the game Meyer admitted "It was my fault" and apologized to Robinson who shouldered part of the blame for starting under the stands.

The Brooks left 15 on base but won the game on the run Robinson scored. Campanella's homer in the second gave them an early lead but Willie Jones sent the Phils on top 2-1 with a two-run homer in the third. Brooklyn tied it in the seventh when Meyer walked a man with the bases full. Pee Wee Reese drove in the tie-breaking score in the seventh with a fly ball. They needed Robinson's run to win for the Phils came back with one on three singles off reliever Carl Erskine in the ninth.

Sox To Meet A's
It was the same old story for the Phils, failure to hit in the pinches and ineffective pitching. It was the only game scheduled.

Paul Richards' Chicago White Sox, of course, are the real surprise package of baseball. Still working on a 14-game win streak that is only five short of the league record, they get a chance to pick on the Philadelphia A's for two days before Boston moves into town.

$30 Error Brings Profit Of $1,293

Toledo, O., June 1 (P)—A mistake last night was worth a lot of money to Maurice L. Bly, a ticket seller at Port Miami racetrack here.

An unidentified bettor approached Bly's $10 window and asked for three tickets on a certain horse in the fifth race.

Bly punched out three tickets on the No. 3 horse—but the bettor hadn't asked for that horse and refused to accept the tickets.

Bly was stuck with his $30 mistake because once tickets are punched there is no way to make a correction on the automatic totalizer machine.

But No. 3 was Rose Jester, a 40 to 1 longshot that won the race, paying $66.20 for a $2 bet.

New York, June 1 (P)—Wonder if the slick paper jinx could be catching up with sensational young Mickey Mantle? ... The national magazines had just begun hitting the stands with stories about this phee-nom when Mickey's batting average began to drop and now you hear he's to get a few days' rest on the bench as the Yankees start their second western trip. ... He fanned five times in Wednesday's doubleheader.

PITCHER'S DUAL
When the Vanderbilt baseball team, which hadn't won a game all season, was behind, as usual, in a game with Georgia Tech this spring, the players weren't so happy about it and were giving the ump's a bit of back talk. ... One Vandy boy objected strenuously when the arbiter called strike one against him. ... The next pitch was called a ball, and the batter muttered: "It was in the same place the last one was." ... "I.K." retorted the harassed ump, "strike two."

Allentown, Pa., June 1 (P)—Dorothy Ludwig, 21, and Curt Simmons, former Philadelphia Phillies pitcher now in the army, will be married, but they haven't set a date.

Miss Ludwig, a resident of near-by Egypt, told newsmen in disclosing the engagement yesterday, she had known Curt since grammar school days. She was graduated last Monday from Kutztown (Pa.) Teachers college.

Simmons, a corporal, is home on a ten-day leave from the 28th Infantry Division, now training at Camp Atterbury, Ind. He won 17 games for the 1950 National league champions before his National Guard unit was federalized.

Bellhop Solves Crosby's Troubles

Vancouver, B. C., June 1 (P)—A bellhop solved Bing Crosby's troubles after he had been given the brush-off at a swank hotel here.

Crosby started for the door when the bellhop recognized him, heard his troubles and started him via the freight elevator to the seventh floor.

Governor Paul V. McNutt, of Indiana, Pays Tribute: "The true monuments to the soldier dead should be the living people of this nation," declared Governor Paul V. McNutt, of Indiana, past National Commander of the American Legion, in his memorial day address in the Gettysburg National cemetery Saturday afternoon.

A cloud-laden sky and a chilling breeze failed to cool the spirit of reverence that permeated those who participated in the exercises.

Aides to Colonel Henry Stewart, who headed the procession, were Robert E. Tipton and Leroy H. Winebrenner.

Major Calvin Gilbert, 96, oldest Civil war veteran in Adams county, was honorary marshal and with surviving veterans of the war between the states, who were able to participate, rode in automobiles.
At the cemetery the Blue and Gray band and the high school band furnished music. Edward Hughes sounded taps.

Honorable Donald P. McPherson was master of ceremonies at the rostrum. Congressman Harry L. Haines read Lincoln's Gettysburg address. Governor McNutt was presented by former Judge McPherson.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

ON SEEING

What a blessing are these eyes of ours! How little do we appreciate their remarkable use to us day by day. The things we see, feel, and express in words, would not be possible were it not for our sight. Every day these eyes of ours are planting memories within our minds. Every day they tell us of something new.

The trained writer sees things no one else does, in the same way he does. And so he writes in such a way that we meet his characters and know them, and thrill to the descriptions given of his many experiences, and of those of his characters. Our mind's eye sees what his physical ones do.

Talk with an artist is always interesting and enlightening for he makes you see things you never noticed before. He looks for, and discovers, the soul of things. The artist looks upon the clothes of his subject as a part of the person he portrays. And he sees in a flower, a tree, or a storm, something of himself, and so paints it.

Many a book about a particular country has been written by authors who never visited the country portrayed, but they actually saw it with that inward eye, trained to feel as well as to see. I recently talked with a blind young man and he told me how he felt the things that people with normal sight saw. Every day our eyes are blind to beauty and to wonders that flash before our eyes everywhere we go.

I recall my first visit to Niagara Falls. I had read a great deal about this great natural spectacle, but I saw things I had never read about, and the longer I gazed at the remarkable sight the more I saw to challenge my interest and admiration for so stupendous a wonder. The same experience was had when I first visited the Grand Canyon of Arizona. You could live upon its edge for a thousand years—and still fail to see it in its last mood!

Trees are so full of character that I find myself almost talking to them from time to time. Sometimes I like to think that they actually do whisper a message of good will from their Creator. I talk back to them, thanking them. I see so much in each variety. And all are friendly.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Comedians."

WEDDING GIFT

A wedding gift is something that is difficult to choose.
Shall it be a thing of beauty or "a thing that they can use?"
Shall it be a bowl for berries or a spoon for serving stew?
If the bride would care for either, would she care for twenty-two?

I remember when we married all the kindness of our friends
And I still recall the gladness which unwrapping gifts attends.
But I also can remember when we put them on display
We had sixteen pickle dishes later on to store away.

Now I say to both my daughters when they go to buy for me:
"Don't choose the most attractive for 'till duplicated be."
Seek for something that is different, not the trinket that is new.
Brides may wish for pickle dishes, but they don't want twenty-two."

THE days and weeks are slipping by—and what have you done about it?

What have you done to find out how it feels to handle a high-powered and high-spirited '51 Buick?

We'll tell you this. In all the years that Buick has been building fine automobiles, there's never been the match for this one.

CLARK GABLES TO BE DIVORCED

Hollywood, June 1 (P) — Mrs. Clark Gable sailed for Honolulu today after filing suit for divorce yesterday.

Described as "a woman on the verge of a nervous breakdown," the former Lady Sylvia Ashley boarded a schooner yacht last night and immediately secluded herself below deck.

"She's positively heartbroken," said her brother-in-law, Basil Black, who acted as her spokesman.

Her breakup with the 50-year-old screen star came less than 18 months after their marriage, the fourth for each. She charged mental crucity.

"I am taking this step with the deepest reluctance and under severe pressure," Mrs. Gable, 40, said yesterday in a statement. "All of my efforts for a reconciliation were fruitless."

A spokesman for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, where Gable is making a picture, reported: "Mr. Gable has nothing to say."

The schooner, a 192-footer, will

Mrs. Gable probably will sail only as far as Honolulu, her brother-in-law said. That leg of the trip is expected to take about 20 days.

A spokesman for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, where Gable is making a picture, reported: "Mr. Gable has nothing to say."

Littlestown Eagles Dedicate $50,000 Addition With Three Day Program Beginning Tonight

Littlestown Aerie No. 2226, Fraternal Order of Eagles officially opens its recently-completed addition to its building in Littlestown today with a three-day program which continues Saturday and Sunday. A dedication program will be held Sunday afternoon.

The celebration opens this evening with a dance for members and their wives or friends, with music furnished by Gene Frock and his orchestra of Westminster. One Saturday night Peewee Rowley and his Range Riders will play for dancing.

The dedication ceremony is scheduled for 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, with Bernard Selby, chairman of the dedication committee as master of ceremonies and John Heller, York, past state president, as the principal speaker. Music on the Hammond organ will be furnished by Miss Esther Crouse.

$50,000 Addition
The addition, 42 by 56 feet built on the rear of the old building, was completed on April 25 at a cost of more than $50,000.

An addition to the existing building was discussed for several months. Then a building committee, composed of Claude Olinger, Clem Sneringer and Edward Alloff was appointed.

The general contract was awarded to I. H. Crouse and Sons. Other contractors were: Plumbing and heating, Vernon Reaver; electrical work, Stanley Stover; bars, fixtures, tables and chairs, Redding Upholstery and Fixture corporation; pool tables, Rosatto Barry company, Philadelphia; new television set, Samuel Harnish; draperies, Mrs. Robert Eckenrode.

The addition provides an entirely new grill, new stag bar, and a new kitchen with dumb waiter service. The stag bar has pool tables, television and a number of games. The two rooms are finished in modern pastel shades with new furniture and lighting fixtures and new drapes.

The older building has been renovated and contains an office, guest room, coat rooms and storage space. There is a large parking lot in the rear.

Members of the dedication committee, besides Mr. Selby, are Edward G. Loeffel, treasurer, and John A. Sentz, secretary. The entertainment committee is composed of Lake Shanesbrook, Clarence Sheely and Ivan Rickrode.

Officers of the aerie are: president, Luther H. Hankey; vice president, Lake Shanesbrook; secretary, John A. Sentz; treasurer, Edward G. Loeffel; trustees, Claude W. Olinger, George G. Collins, Robert F. Barnes and Monroe Stavelly; chaplain, Lloyd Weaver; conductor, Herman Kaler; inside guard, Samuel Smeltzer; outside guard, George Fowler.

The past presidents of the aerie, founded in 1936, are: George Collins, 1936 (first past president); Edward Utz, 1936; George Kress, 1937; 38 and 39; I. H. Hilliard, 1936-37; Edward G. Loeffel, 1939, 40, 41-42; John Sentz, 1942-43; Bernard Selby, 1943-44-45; Robert Barnes, 1945-46; Edward Wisotzky, 1946-47; Kenneth Sparver, 1947-48; Frank Klingan, 1948-49; Claude Olinger, 1949-50 and Luther Hankey, 1950-51. Roscoe Bowers is the newly-elected president who will take over on June 7.

The Littlestown aerie is a member of the Pennsylvania Federation of Fraternal and Social organizations.

YANKEE IS NOW HEAD OF SCV

Norfolk, Va., June 1 (P)—What goes on here?

The three Civil War vets attending the final reunion of the United Confederate Veterans were promised a tour of the harbor aboard the Robert E. Lee. But they'll have to settle for a northern ship—The State of Pennsylvania.

And the Sons of Confederate Veterans last night elected a Yankee as their president.

Of course, someone stretched a point in calling the ship the Robert E. Lee. It was really the Virginia Lee—and has been known as the Holiday since her post World War Two reconversion. But the Holiday has changed hands so it'll have to be the Pennsylvania.

As for the Sons of Confederate Veterans, meeting with their parent body, it seems that A. Belmont Dennis, of Covington, Ga., declined to hold the office for another term. Then Judge John J. Lively, of Chattanooga, was offered the nomination, but he refused to be a candidate.

So Judge William Beard, of the Municipal Court, Westfield, N. J., got the job.

Boston, June 1 (P)—A white-haired priest was credited today with saving the life of an 18-year-old soldier who teetered on a ninth-story hotel ledge for 92 minutes Wednesday, apparently bent on suicide. The youth was identified as Albert Thomas, an army private absent without leave from Fort Dix, N. J., for two weeks.

His rescuer was Father Joseph P. Curran of St. Stephen's Catholic church, who was attracted by a throng in front of the Hotel Touraine.

EAGLES

The State Agent of the Eagles National Life Insurance Company and I have tried the past week to see all those who sent in cards or coupons asking about the "Package Plan" covering life, hospital, surgical, and weekly benefits. Many Brother Eagles were not at home, and we would be glad to call back at a time convenient to you. Let us know when to call. Sunday afternoon calls by appointment.
